Says If Christian Science Is Lord Come Back, He's Gonna Be Here

Sorry to Hear It.
 "They tell you Christian Science is the Holy Ghost, copyrights⁴ and portioned out to any fool that has the price to pay for it," said evangelist John E. Brown, at the tabernacle Wednesday morning. "In the time of Christ a man came to Simon and offered him money if Simon would con-er upon him the Holy Ghost. Simon cried out upon him, Thy money perish with thee, to think at the Holy Spirit could be bought with gold!

Simon lived 1900 years too soon. Mrs.
Eddy, to keep people off the grass, said that the giant sin was laughing at the claims and pretensions of practitioners of Science. Well, if that is the giant sin, I've committed it, not once, but dozens of times. But I don't

...I'm incapable of sin, so why should I worry? I'm told not to laugh at Christian Science, but there's no judgment except that that comes every day, and no penalty, so I'll go right ahead and giant sin all I please." Speaks on Three Cults.

Evangelist Brown, in his second talk of the week on the cults, under the title, "Christian Science, Is It

Christians drew a parallel between Russellism, mormonism and Eddysm in that each claimed to be the only true real religion, saying that each replaces the Bible with a book of their own, which they claim to be divine. He said that if each is traced backward, much is found in the way of divorce, separated homes and the like that has to be apologized for and explained. Each, he said, is like the other, in that all have emphasized the

"Mormonism appeals to those who would give free rein to the passions of the flesh, because the greater accomplishment in this field, the more the chance of being a god in heaven; Eddym appeals to the fear of disease and death; Russellism appeals to the fear of hell and eternal punishment by promising an open door and a chance to try again," he said.

Great Religious Machine.
 "The Christian Science machine is the greatest religious machine in the world," said the speaker. "It builds no homes for the aged, no hospitals, or it teaches that to sympathize with suffering is to undermine God. He said. He declared that no member of the church is supposed to answer any criticisms of the cult, but all answers are made by the district superintendaid that the experience had been so bad, that they waited till he had gone out of town to reply to attacks in the newspapers. In all respects, there is no of a bigger or kinder heart, he than the founder of the Christian Science church, published with no other thought than to mislead and deceive the millions of Protestant church members into believing that Christian Scientists believe all that the church believes," declares the evangelist.

"They say they believe in God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Ghost, Heaven and sin. But ask them what kind of God and what kind of a Jesus they believe in, and they will slide step by step into generalities," Mr. Brown said.

"A certain Mr. Wiggins, an educated man who wrote Science and Health for Mrs. Eddy, found many passages with the meaning so obscure that he

He pointed out that she did not want it near, she wanted it so deep and ambiguous that people would think it so profound that finite minds couldn't grasp it. Mrs. Eddy and her followers say that God is not a person, he is a principle, and the only principle and we are the reflection of that principle. Accordingly we cannot sin or suffer because a principle can't suffer or sin.

"They cast reflection upon the monument because, they say, no one sacrifices, however great, could pay a price of sin. Jesus Christ, they say, is a spiritual idea, which dwells rever in the bosom of the father, from which it, the spiritual idea, illumines heaven and earth. I have the testimony of a Christian Science converted Jew which helps to prove that the Jesus Christ of the Scientists is a

What about the return of Jesus Christ. We've been taught to look for his return with the saints from heaven, and I've prayed for it. They teach that Christian Science is the return of Jesus Christ, the triumph of the spiritual principle. Well, if Christian Science is my Lord come back, honest to God I'm sorry he Luncheons will be given again Thursday noon and evening. At the dining luncheon the women of all the churches in the city are preparing to give 200 meals.
